The Type Pro Programme

Why are we here?

Our goal is to create brilliant Personality Type professionals. Not just people who are good at using a particular tool, but professional who are brilliant at helping their clients to achieve their purpose.

What is Type Pro?

Type Pro is world-class personality Type training, designed by top Type experts with the goal of providing the highest quality training to people all over the world. This is the most flexible Type training available, designed to fit around busy professional schedules and global teams.

The course has been produced by world-class Type experts, running on state-of-the-art distance learning technology.

Why is it great?

- You can complete your Type training in your office or at home.
- The flexible programme allows you to work at your pace.
- Type Pro training provides access to Type instruments such as Type Coach.
- One-to-one support from an expert tutor with more than 15 years experience with Type.

The course includes:

- Three interactive online modules.
- HD videos, interactive exercises and downloadable materials. Three individual sessions with your tutor.
- Two group webinars.
- Your tutor is always available for you.
- Practice sessions with expert feedback.

What is involved?

- You will typically join the course as part of a small cohort of 4-6 people
- You will work and practice together for support and shared learning.
- Each module involves 8-10 hours of online learning, assignments, webinars and tutorials. The whole course lasts six weeks, and of course you complete it all at your own schedule time.
